

Registration Information

Registration is free, but please notify Caroline Smith with Navajo Dept. of Agriculture to register and for any transportation arrangements:

Caroline Smith
Navajo Dept. of Agriculture
P.O. Box 4889
Window Rock, AZ 86515

Name: _____

Agency/Company: _____

Email: _____

Telephone: _____

Please send requests for information on van transportation* and more information to:

Dr. Joe Bahe	505-612-9912
Grey Farrell, Jr.	928-401-0925
*Caroline Smith	928-871-6617
	928-871-6605

Please notify us if you have a disability for which you seek an accommodation

Workshop Sponsors

Risk Management Agency Outreach

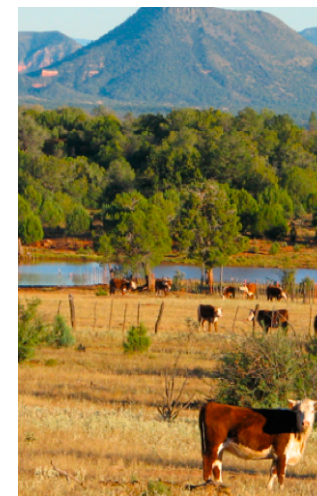

Navajo Nation Dept. of Agr.

Rez to Rail Workshop

March 24-27, 2011

Learn how genetics and management practices can improve production performance and marketing decisions.

Site Locations:

- Monument Valley UT High School (HS)
- Peabody Coal, Black Mesa
- Monument Valley AZ HS

Rez to Rail Agenda:

All times are Daylight Savings Time

March 24, Thursday

Monument Valley Utah High School

1:00 to 4:00 pm (Jack Seltzer, Vo Ag.
Teacher at Monument Valley HS)

+ Drip Irrigation

- design
- installation
- operation and maintenance

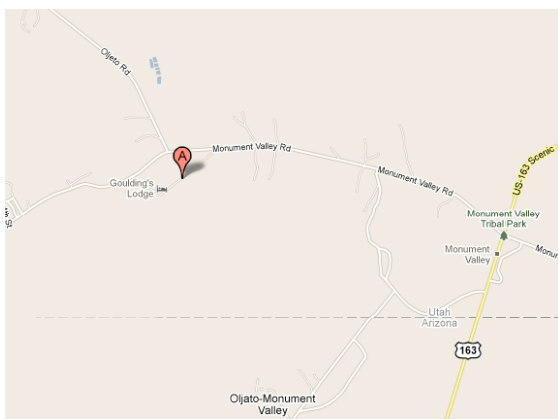

+ Fruit Tree Planting & Pruning

+ Cropping Under Drip Irrigation

Monument Valley Utah HS

(22 miles North of Kayenta, AZ)

Highway 163 So., 100 West
Monument Valley, UT

March 25th, Friday

Peabody Coal Company on Black Mesa

9:00 to 10:30 Reclamation of mined lands

Greg Jones, Environmental Scientist

10:30 to 12:00 Grazing Management on Reclaimed Lands, Greg Jones, Environmental Scientist

12:00 to 1:00 Lunch (on own)

1:00 to 2:00 Recordkeeping for Ranchers and Livestock Market Update Russ Tronstad, Ag & Resource Economics / Cooperative Extension, Univ. of Arizona.

2:00 to 3:00 Dine' Ranchers Association: Edwin Yazzie and Larry Gene

3:00 to 3:30 Wrap Up/Evaluation:

Peabody Coal Mine Human Resources Bldg. on Indian Route-41; 8 miles south from 160 and Indian Route-41 Jct.

March 26-27, Sat.-Sun.

Monument Valley Agri-Science Center

Grand Opening, Monument Valley Arizona High School

9:00 to 4:00 (Saturday and Sunday)

- Embryo Transplant on cattle
- Beef Cattle Selection
- Beef Quality Assurance Standards
- Beef Nutrition and Reproduction
- Hoof and Dental Equine Care
- Artificial Insemination in cattle
- Cattle Hoof Trimming
- Equine Natural Balance
- Sheep Shearing

Native Monument Valley (Arizona) High School, Kayenta, AZ

Agri-Science Center Grand Opening

Center will be used as a full veterinary facility and train high school students the skills necessary in animal veterinary medicine.

